- Practice chairing and participating in business meetings
- Understand Canadian workplace culture and ethics
- Improve your pronunciation
- Support for your job search, resumé development and interviews
- Connect with a mentor

Ramona Gogoasa came to Canada from Romania with a background in recruitment. She wanted to pursue a career in human resources in Canada. Ramona quickly realized she needed to improve her business communication in order to achieve her full potential. She attended the Language for Workplace Connections program. She was able to develop her English language and business communication skills and successfully find employment.
